

FROM EXPLOITING TO NURTURING

Theological Perspectives on the Climate Crisis
from the Pacific

DECOLONIZE
THEOLOGY!

05. Mai 2023

21:00 Uhr (online)

Anmeldung: decolonizetheology@web.de

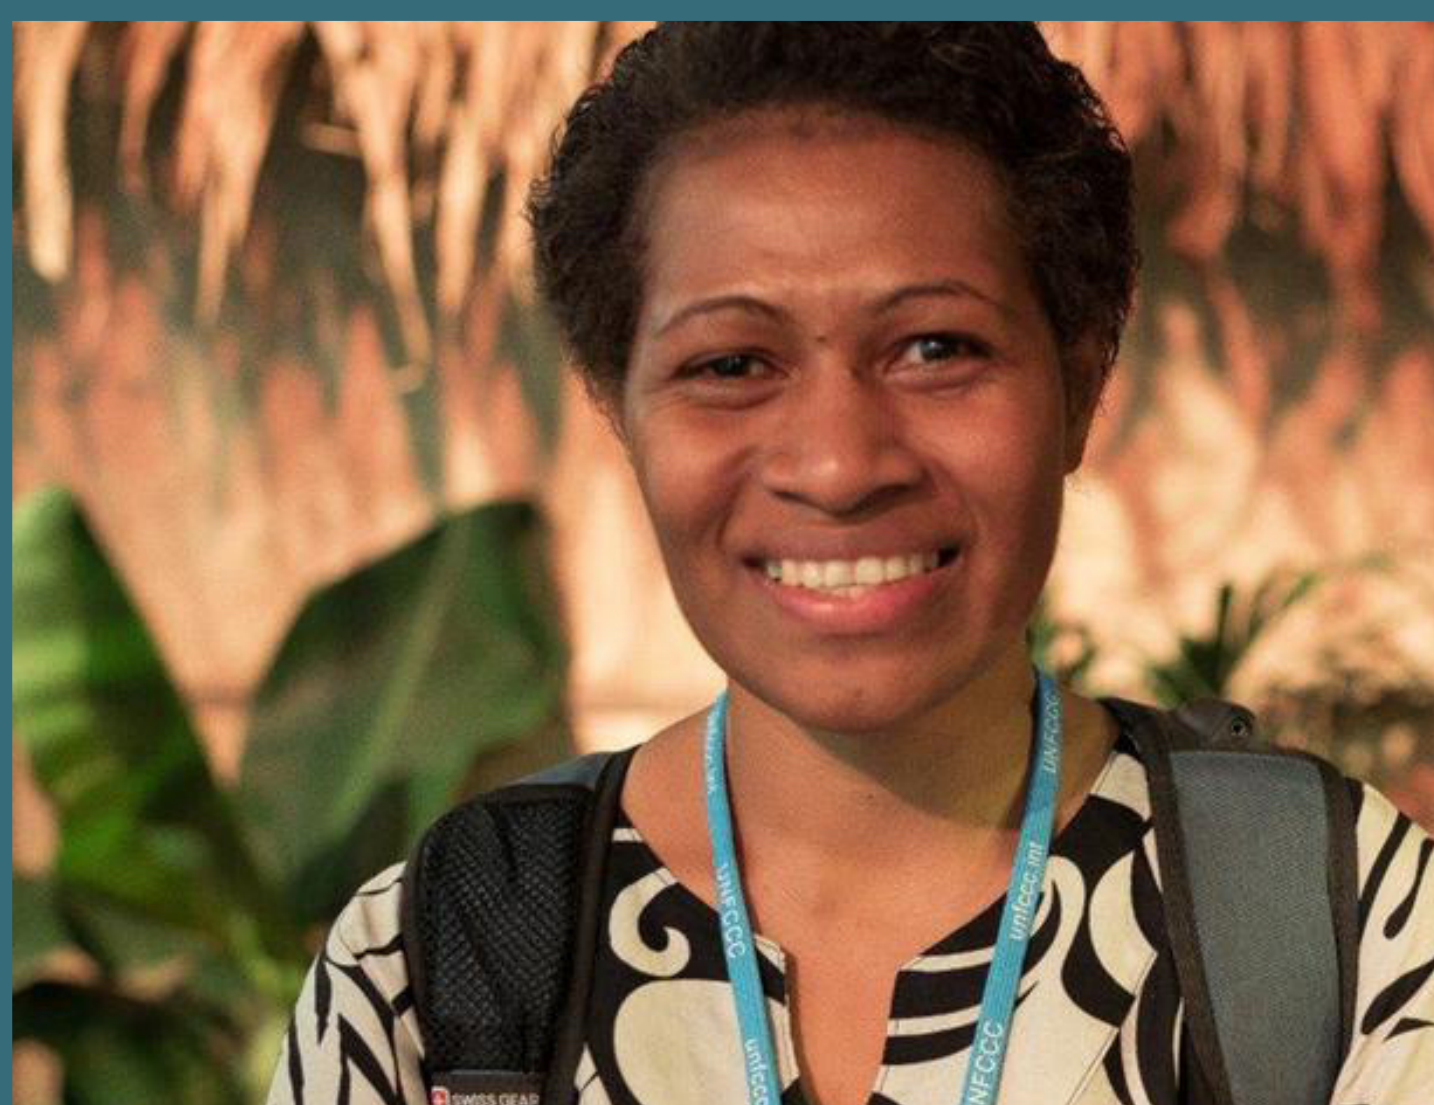

Instagram: Decolonize Theology

WHAT DOES THEOLOGY HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE CLIMATE CRISIS?

While the German perspective has the privileges to consider this question from a very theoretical approach this is not the case for most.

Wilfer Rigamoto, Youth representative to the REM Team and is involved in this work with PTC, PCC and USP

Frances Namoumou, Ecumenical Animator Ecological Stewardship & Climate Justice Program

Christian Theologians who live in the Pacific have had the sad necessity to become experts in this field.

This workshop will give insights in the theological thinking from the pacific that aims to change the narrative of development from one that exploits human being and ecology to one that nurtures communities and emphasizes the sacredness of creation.

DECOLONIZE
THE OLOGY!

The workshop will be held in English.